

Week's Social Happenings in Towns of State

PROVO.

Lucian L. Noyes, of this city, and Miss Celesta Salisbury, of Richfield, were married in the Salt Lake temple Wednesday. Mr. Noyes is one of Provo's promising business men, and has a host of young friends in this city, who extend congratulations and best wishes to the happy young couple. Mr. and Mrs. Noyes left Saturday for Los Angeles.

Miss Fern Scott is spending a couple of weeks with relatives and friends in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Leyland Graham returned to her home in Salt Lake, after spending a couple of days in this city with Mrs. C. Graham and family.

Mrs. William Strong has returned home after a couple of weeks' visit with her brother, Mr. A. D. Young and family, in Ogden.

Joseph Smith, formerly of this city but now residing in Los Angeles, Cal., spent a couple of days in Provo this week.

Mrs. Leo Thurman was the recipient of a pleasant surprise, given at her home Tuesday afternoon by about twenty friends, many of whom were members of the Margaret club, of which Mrs. Thurman is a member. The afternoon passed pleasantly in social chat and music. A dainty lunch was served.

Mrs. C. L. Grier has returned from Los Angeles, Cal., where she has spent several months. Mrs. Grier will return later.

O. B. Suh will leave the fore part of the week for a visit with friends in the east.

The Five Hundred club gave a very elaborate ball and reception Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. H. Thompson. The room was appropriately decorated for the occasion. About sixty couples enjoyed an evening of most fantastic. Punch and cake were served.

Miss Mina Houston spent Sunday with her relatives in American Fork.

Thomas Roylance returned from a week's visit with friends in Emery.

J. A. Homer, one of Provo's prominent young men, left for the city of Washington, D. C., where he has accepted a position in the government service.

Mrs. George Craig is home again after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Kansas City, Mo.

Miss Ramona, daughter of Judge W. H. King, has returned to her home in Salt Lake, after a two weeks' visit as the guest of Miss Zula Houtz.

Mrs. Isadora Clark, who has spent the past six months in Boston, has returned to Provo for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Thompson, of Salt Lake City, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Beck over Sunday.

Alex. Substantin, of Ogden, spent Wednesday with friends in this city.

William M. Roylance has returned from a pleasant trip to Nevada and California.

Mrs. C. H. Wright came down from Salt Lake Wednesday to spend a couple of days. She reports Mr. Wright improving in health.

Miss M. E. Brereton delightfully entertained a number of her lady friends at a Kensington at her home Tuesday afternoon. A pleasant social and musical afternoon was enjoyed by all. A dainty lunch was served.

Mrs. Lucian Noyes charmingly entertained at a china dinner at her home Monday afternoon, in honor of Miss Celesta Salisbury, of Richfield. About thirty young people enjoyed a pleasant afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served. Many dainty and useful pieces of china were received by the guest of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hampshire entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hodson at dinner at their home Sunday afternoon.

Miss Lydia Knudsen entertained the members of the Sixth Ward sewing class at her home Thursday evening. A pleasant social time was spent. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. N. F. Wilson has returned home after a pleasant visit with Salt Lake friends.

A "welcome home" social was given Friday evening in the Sixth ward social hall, in honor of Monroe Paxman, who lately returned from Australia, where he has spent the past two years. Music, recitations and a social time was enjoyed by a large number of friends. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Elmer Holdaway was the hostess at a family gathering at her home Sunday evening. A most enjoyable dinner was enjoyed and a sumptuous dinner served.

Miss Pansy Thuesen entertained at the home of her cousin, Miss Mattie Hamer, of Salt Lake. About thirty young people enjoyed an evening of cards, games and music. Dainty refreshments were served.

The "Jolly Bunch" enjoyed a delightful evening of dancing and music Friday evening at the First ward social hall. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion. Punch and cake were served.

Hyrum Jensen, of Eureka, spent a couple of days with relatives and friends in this city.

Mrs. S. H. Goodwin entertained the ladies of the aid society at the Congregational church Tuesday afternoon. Refreshments were served.

The Pallas club were the guests of Miss Lydia Knudsen at her home Friday evening. An enjoyable time was spent. Refreshments were served.

Miss Alice Smoot has returned from a very pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Salt Lake and Ogden.

Miss Hazel Ashworth was the charming little hostess to a number of her young friends Friday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Ashworth. Games, music and the partaking of a dainty lunch was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Fred Lewis, of Butte, Mont., is here visiting his sister, Mrs. E. T. Jones.

Miss Hermine Thuesen entertained a number of her friends Tuesday afternoon at the home of her parents. Lunch was served and a pleasant social time enjoyed.

The Nineteenth Century club met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. George Haverkamp. Mrs. H. Love presented an interesting paper on "Mining Camps," followed by one "Minerals," by Mrs. A. E. Buckler.

A number of friends pleasantly surprised Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Bowers at their home Thursday evening. A delightful social evening was spent. Refreshments were served.

BINGHAM.

One of the gayest parties which has ever been present at a social function in Bingham was in attendance last Tuesday evening at the invitation dance tendered by General Manager D. C. Jackling to the Utah Copper club and its friends. As the invitations stated, the dance was informal and restraint and formality were conspicuous by their absence.

The decorations were very simple, consisting of the stars of the club, "C. C." formed by var-colored incandescent lights placed over the orchestra's stand. The stage looked very attractive, the scenery being used to good advantage. R. C. Peterson of the Utah Copper company, who has charge of the arrangements, and his cohort of willing workers had every detail completed, and deserved all the congratulations which were tendered them for the pleasant reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Lanney were in attendance all evening, receiving all the guests and participating in the general good time. The punch bowl was presided over by a well known Upper Bingham artist, who was kept busy replenishing the flowing bowl. At midnight the guests were treated to a dainty repast, which was served in buffet style. The dance broke up in the small hours of the morning, and the guests left the hall loudly sounding the praises of Mr. Jackling.

Bingham Aerle No. 568, F. O. E., held a blow-out Monday night. After the installation of officers a social session was held, to which the ladies were invited, and the members and their friends spent a very pleasant evening.

A. A. Ferre of the Bingham coffee house and family returned Monday from their trip to Provo.

M. James, who has spent several months in Bingham with his son, M. L. James, has returned to his home in New York.

Roy Condie returned Sunday from his trip to Des Moines, Ia.

A merry sleighing party, of about sixteen enjoyed a trip to the Galena mine Friday afternoon, and on their downward trip visited Copperton.

After the enjoyable old-time party at the Grill cafe, where they were seated at a large table which had been previously arranged for the pleasant-bent crowd.

Amos Nielson and family of Copperton have returned home after a pleasant visit in Sevier county.

Paul Sindar was called home to St. Paul, Minn., by a telegram stating that his wife was seriously ill. He left Monday morning.

Miss Minnie Bush returned the latter part of the week from a visit with her sister at the Junction.

Due to the illness in the family of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Williams, the chess club entertained Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Foreman.

Mrs. Antone Christensen and children returned Tuesday from a visit with relatives at Pleasant Grove and a brief stay in Salt Lake.

The Woman's Unity club held a special business meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. Scoville.

Miss Dollie Mackintosh has returned from her pleasant two weeks' visit with relatives and friends at Stockton, Utah. Mrs. Mackintosh is expected to return from her visit with Stockton friends Saturday.

Miss Rose Oxenburgh of Mercer, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Lewis, returned Tuesday to her home.

Fred West was in camp during the week from Kemmerer, Mo., and will shortly return to his family to the Old Reliable, his former home.

The Woman's Unity club holds its next regular meeting Monday, Jan. 14, at the home of Mrs. John J. Simpson, Jr. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Thompson, of Salt Lake City, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Beck over Sunday.

Alex. Substantin, of Ogden, spent Wednesday with friends in this city.

William M. Roylance has returned from a pleasant trip to Nevada and California.

Mrs. C. H. Wright came down from Salt Lake Wednesday to spend a couple of days. She reports Mr. Wright improving in health.

Miss M. E. Brereton delightfully entertained a number of her lady friends at a Kensington at her home Tuesday afternoon. A pleasant social and musical afternoon was enjoyed by all. A dainty lunch was served.

Mrs. Lucian Noyes charmingly entertained at a china dinner at her home Monday afternoon, in honor of Miss Celesta Salisbury, of Richfield. About thirty young people enjoyed a pleasant afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served. Many dainty and useful pieces of china were received by the guest of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hampshire entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hodson at dinner at their home Sunday afternoon.

Miss Lydia Knudsen entertained the members of the Sixth Ward sewing class at her home Thursday evening. A pleasant social time was spent. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. N. F. Wilson has returned home after a pleasant visit with Salt Lake friends.

A "welcome home" social was given Friday evening in the Sixth ward social hall, in honor of Monroe Paxman, who lately returned from Australia, where he has spent the past two years. Music, recitations and a social time was enjoyed by a large number of friends. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Elmer Holdaway was the hostess at a family gathering at her home Sunday evening. A most enjoyable dinner was enjoyed and a sumptuous dinner served.

Miss Pansy Thuesen entertained at the home of her cousin, Miss Mattie Hamer, of Salt Lake. About thirty young people enjoyed an evening of cards, games and music. Dainty refreshments were served.

The "Jolly Bunch" enjoyed a delightful evening of dancing and music Friday evening at the First ward social hall. The hall was prettily decorated for the occasion. Punch and cake were served.

Hyrum Jensen, of Eureka, spent a couple of days with relatives and friends in this city.

Mrs. S. H. Goodwin entertained the ladies of the aid society at the Congregational church Tuesday afternoon. Refreshments were served.

The Pallas club were the guests of Miss Lydia Knudsen at her home Friday evening. An enjoyable time was spent. Refreshments were served.

Miss Alice Smoot has returned from a very pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Salt Lake and Ogden.

Miss Hazel Ashworth was the charming little hostess to a number of her young friends Friday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Ashworth. Games, music and the partaking of a dainty lunch was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Fred Lewis, of Butte, Mont., is here visiting his sister, Mrs. E. T. Jones.

Miss Hermine Thuesen entertained a number of her friends Tuesday afternoon at the home of her parents. Lunch was served and a pleasant social time enjoyed.

The Nineteenth Century club met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. George Haverkamp. Mrs. H. Love presented an interesting paper on "Mining Camps," followed by one "Minerals," by Mrs. A. E. Buckler.

A number of friends pleasantly surprised Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Bowers at their home Thursday evening. A delightful social evening was spent. Refreshments were served.

PARK CITY.

Messrs. Mallie and Talbot entertained the members of the Score club Saturday evening in the club rooms on Park avenue. A cold lunch was served at 11 o'clock and the remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent in cards, dancing and music.

Misses Cleo Getch, Hazel Leary, Crescencia Smith and Edna Wilson returned to Salt Lake Sunday, where they are attending school, after spending the Xmas holidays with their parents in this city.

E. R. Parry returned to Nevada Sunday afternoon, after a pleasant two weeks' visit with friends in this city.

Miss Beulah Simons returned to the Park Monday morning, after a pleasant two weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Salt Lake.

Mrs. C. T. Mixer of Salt Lake has been visiting in the Park the past week with her aunt, Mrs. C. M. Wilson.

After the regular meeting of No. 734, B. P. O. E., Monday evening, a very pleasant social session was held, and the bunch of good fellows and good girls were merry "until early morning."

W. T. Standish left Tuesday afternoon for San Francisco, where he expects to remain during the winter.

William Hatton is visiting in the Park, from Kansas.

A. H. Fiedling spent Wednesday in the metropolis.

Wednesday evening the members of the arphorome class of the Minter school at the High school at sleigh riding party. The young people met at the home of Miss Ada Kimball at 7 o'clock and the sleigh party drove around through town for a couple of hours, after which they returned to the home of Miss Ethel Rashd, where an oyster supper was served by the young lady. Following this the crowd listened to many musical selections and the affair was pronounced a grand success by all.

Mrs. Nellie M. Thiriot and two children returned to their home in the city Wednesday afternoon, after a pleasant two weeks' visit with relatives in this city.

A very pleasant and successful social event of the week was the sleighing party given Thursday evening by the juniors. Neat invitations were sent to the High school teachers and at 8 o'clock all met at the home of Miss Rhia Riley, president of the class, where all was in readiness for the drive. After riding for several hours, the whole party returned to the president's home, where they partook of some light refreshments, and each junior went home feeling glad that they were members of the class of '08. George Whipple left Thursday afternoon for Nevada, where he expects to remain.

Miss Florence Talbot went down to the city Sunday afternoon on a visit with friends and relatives.

L. P. Twigg returned from Zion Sunday morning, where he spent the holidays with relatives.

A number of the young friends of Floyd Williams surprised him at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Williams, Wednesday afternoon, the occasion being his ninth birthday. The little ones amused themselves with a set of dominoes, and at 7 o'clock in the evening refreshments were served to all.

Mrs. Thelma Emery is visiting in Salt Lake.

The Ladies of Rebekah installed officers Tuesday evening, for the ensuing year. G. E. P. M. Thiriot of Salt Lake conducted the work and was assisted by the local officers. Following this work refreshments were served and the ladies left.

John W. Patrick, who is soon to make his home in Salt Lake and who is one of the oldest local residents, was presented with a silver teapot. The lady in a short speech thanked her sisters and assured them that she would always be glad to return to the Park lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Welsh entertained at dinner Wednesday evening.

Miss Lizzie Wilson was the recipient of a pleasant surprise party at the home of her parents Friday evening. About twenty friends were present, and made merry with music and games.

MURRAY.

The social event of the week was the ball given in the Provo road Thursday evening by the voluntary committee, there being about 500 people present. Invitations were issued to the Salt Lake friends of the committee.

There were present. There were a dozen of them. Miss Edith Alice of Salt Lake won first prize, Mrs. Bodell of Murray second, Bert Bay of Mill Creek third, Ernest Etur of Murray fourth and Will Howard of Sandy fifth.

Oscar Walters is attending school at Provo.

Arthur Hayes is in town on a short visit.

E. Cahoon is at his old stand at the postoffice again.

Miss Annie Hanson of Spanish Fork is visiting Mrs. L. M. Miller.

Joseph Harrop and wife of Ogden are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Harrop.

Miss Fern Miller is attending school at the L. D. S. university in Salt Lake.

J. W. Cahoon is home from Los Angeles.

Wilfred Smith of Salt Lake has taken charge of the bowling alley.

M. Nogal has accepted a position in Salt Lake.

Ray Conyers is with F. C. Thomas in the barber business.

William Poulton has moved into his new home.

Leo Shaw is clerking at the Murray Drug company.

Thomas Martin will leave on a mission to England in February.

James Caldwell has accepted a position as agent for the West Coast Life Insurance company.

John Rens has moved into his new home on State street.

A. E. White is going into the automobile business.

J. W. Lawson has left for Los Angeles on a short visit.

F. Savage has moved to Salt Lake City.

John R. Wright has accepted a position with the Madsen Hardware company.

Arthur Holmes was visiting his parents in Sandy one day this week.

Thomas Martin, Jr., has returned to school at Provo.

The new home of L. C. Miller is rapidly nearing completion.

Miss Lily Grey is spending a week in Salt Lake with friends.

A. F. Savage was in town Wednesday on business.

M. Williamson is manager of the Consolidated Wagon & Machine company here.

D. Atwood of Spanish Fork was in town Saturday.

Mrs. Otto Clark is visiting her mother, Mrs. D. Hardestad of Sandy, this week.

Hyrum Nelson of Halliday was in town on business one day this week.

D. Odell has received his new X-ray machine.

Thomas Powell will leave for Tonopah the first of the week.

Morris & Divitt have taken charge of the new White restaurant.

Steel Fisher of Salt Lake was in town visiting friends Thursday.

J. Jones is home from Portland.

Reynolds Cahoon is home for a short visit.

Mrs. Elizabeth Moore entertained a few friends Thursday evening.

TINTIC.

John R. Vance spent last Sunday with his family in Payson.

Mrs. T. D. Sullivan was a visitor to the capital during the week.

County Commissioner Hans Hassel was in Nephi Monday.

Mrs. R. S. Robertson returned Saturday from a trip to Salt Lake.

William Tite, who has been ill for the past two weeks, is reported as recovering.

"Sis" Taylor is in Denver, called there by the illness of his father.

Mrs. James Spear of Eureka is at present visiting friends in Eureka.

Miss Maymie Sullivan returned to Salt Lake last Sunday, to resume her studies at St. Mary's academy.

County Attorney T. L. Foote was up from Nephi last Wednesday and Thursday.

Miss Genevieve Sullivan returned to the capital last Sunday, to resume her studies at the university.

Jackson McChrystal entertained during the week W. R. Wallace of Salt Lake City.

Hyrum Jensen was a visitor to the capital during the week.

Mrs. F. J. Hirt, who has been visiting Mrs. P. J. Donnelly, returned to her home in Salt Lake last Monday.

Fred Bramley of Salt Lake is visiting relatives in Eureka.

County Commissioner George McCune of Nephi was in Eureka Friday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Thayer returned from the funeral of Mrs. Eric Wheeler last Thursday at Goshen.

Miss Jennie Mitchell is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell, at Riverton.

Ed Evans of Mammoth is experiencing a severe attack of rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gregory are visiting in the capital.

Last Thursday evening the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Freckleton was the scene of a very pleasant party, given in honor of the latter's birthday. Among the guests present were Mrs. Hans J. Hassel, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Freckleton and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Towlers of Mammoth.

Frank Kimball of Twin Falls, Ida., was in Eureka during the week.

Mrs. H. C. Don Carlos enjoyably entertained a number of ladies last Wednesday afternoon at a quilting bee.

Frank McHatten returned from a visit to the capital last Monday. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Winnie McHatten.

Charles Kroff, who had been visiting W. W. Freckleton at Eureka, returned to the capital last Sunday.

Rev. C. C. Stillman, pastor of the First Baptist church in Eureka, and who was married New Year's day in Troy, N. Y., to Miss Rachael Schermerhorn of that place, is expected to return to Eureka shortly. His many friends are planning to give them a hearty welcome.

Frank Lumley was a visitor to Zion during the week.

Bert Harris of Mammoth, who is laid up with an injured foot, is getting along nicely.

Mrs. James Ryan returned Tuesday from a visit to Zion.

Mrs. Egge, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Shriver of Eureka, returned to her home in the capital last Monday.

Mrs. D. J. Sullivan and daughter, Miss Irene Sullivan, returned from a visit to Salt Lake City last Saturday.

Mrs. John Hurd returned yesterday from a visit to Zion.

Among those who attended the funeral of John Foley at Salt Lake last Thursday were Messrs. and Mesdames Charles Murrish and John Morley and Levi Schofield.

Miss Clara Gillis, Miss Ruby Ferguson, Messrs. Alex. Slight, John Crown, Grove Chesbro, Charlie Alberg, William Argyle, Fred Matthews and Ed Hanson attended the funeral of Cyrus Dallin at Springfield last Wednesday.

NEPHI.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Moore have moved here from Ogden, and will make their future home here.

A party from Provo joined the Nephi hunters on an exciting rabbit hunt last Tuesday. Some of those present from Provo were Lester Mangum, Alex. Heddquist, George Howe and R. A. Barney.

The senior class of the High school is planning a banquet for tonight in honor of the High school basketball team.

Mrs. J. R. Hickman and Miss Mary Morgan returned to Salt Lake Monday.

Alice Greenwood returned Sunday from her home at American Fork, where she spent the week.

J. L. Ellerton of Monticello was in attendance upon the county commissioners' meeting Monday and Tuesday.

H. D. Goldsborough was in Salt Lake the first part of the week.

Miss Josie Munk of Manti passed through here Monday on her way to attend the Agricultural college at Logan.

Mrs. J. S. Ostler is named on the re-election committee to receive the votes of the members who attend the National Wool Growers' association at Salt Lake on the 14th inst.

T. L. Foote was in Tintic Thursday and Friday.

Alma Hyde left for Logan Sunday.

J. H. Hunt was in Moroni the first part of the week.

Mrs. Charles Brown returned to Salt Lake Monday.

Leo Shaw returned to Payson Sunday.

Miss Maude Belliston returned from a visit to Payson last Sunday evening.

George McCune was in Tintic the last part of the week.

Rufus Day of Fillmore is spending two weeks in Nephi.

Mrs. Alma Hague has been on the sick list for some time.

Miss Summer of Provo is visiting in Nephi this week.

Miss Fay Loose of Provo visited friends here last Saturday and Sunday.

J. A. Hyde was in Provo Tuesday.

Miss Mayme Hyde entertained G. S. Walker of Salt Lake last Sunday.

RICHFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Van Wageningen visited with relatives in Provo this week.

Miss Ruby Erickson visited in Kimberly the past week with friends.

E. W. Payne arrived from Mexico this week and is visiting with relatives here and in Glenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Dimmick visited in Gunnison this week with friends and relatives.

Mrs. C. M. Heppner visited in Saline Sunday with friends.

Miss Eudora Miller returned to Sevier Sunday, after spending the holidays here with her mother, Mrs. H. P. Miller.

Miss Eva Dennis visited with her mother at Marysville this week. Mrs. Dennis will leave in a few days for Ely, Nev.

Miss E. A. Peterson is visiting with relatives in Ephraim.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Hanson visited with relatives in Ephraim last week.

Miss Z. Bowers of Elmore visited with the Rev. and Mrs. Dexter this week.

Parley Powell of Coalville visited with friends in Richfield during the past week.

Mrs. W. C. Stewart returned to Bingham Sunday, after a visit here with her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Andelin went to Provo Friday to meet her son, Willard, who is on his way from Europe, and who expects to visit a few days at that place.

Miss Sophia Jensen returned to Salt Lake Monday after a couple of weeks' visit here with her father, Peter Jensen.

Mrs. Mary Leysen of Ogden visited with her sister, Mrs. A. C. Riser.

Miss Mildred Forgiven returned from her Logan vacation trip Sunday to resume her duties at the Richfield High school.

Miss Teekle of Salt Lake, who has been visiting during the holidays with the family of C. W. Walker, returned home Monday.

Mrs. Paul Kelly of Sevier visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Graham, last week, returning home Monday.

Mrs. D. S. Dorrity is back at her place in the hotel room after a vacation visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Erickson, of Monroe.

Miss Effie Sorenson and her mother are now residents of Richfield.

Martin Jensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morten Jensen, left Sunday on a mission to Denmark.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thompson of Ogden visited with relatives here, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Skougard and Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Iyle, this week.

J. E. Ingalls of Astoria, Ore., was in Richfield this week visiting old time friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jensen were over from Holden this week visiting with friends. Mr. Jensen formerly lived here.

Clarence Isbell and Lillian Nielsen of Richfield, who are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Bates of Monroe and Ada Skinkner of Joseph received marriage licenses this week and were married by County Clerk Parley Magleby.

AMERICAN FORK.

Professor Ernest Paxman, leader of the Second ward L. D. S. choir, was the victim of a well arranged surprise party Wednesday night. About thirty of the members of the choir gathered at his home in the evening, at the time they were supposed to be at the chapel practice—and were he was waiting for them to come to rehearsal. But after he had waited some time for them to come he returned home and was met with the cry of "surprise" by the crowd who had assembled at his home, and to say that he was surprised would be putting it mildly. After a delightful program which had been arranged, consisting of music, singing and speeches, the games were engaged in the remainder of the evening. A delightful luncheon was served at 11 o'clock. Mr. Paxman was presented with two beautiful volumes of selected music by the members of the choir as a token of their esteem and appreciation of his services as instructor.

Miss Laphie Gardner entertained a few of her lady friends at her home in the Third ward Friday night. Parlor games of various kinds furnished the amusement for the evening. A dainty luncheon was served.

Miss Edith Hindley entertained at her home Friday night in honor of Miss Lourene Hyde of Salt Lake and Mr. Francis Lyng of this place, whose wedding is announced to take place the middle of February.

The Misses Ida, Amanda and Lize Chipman entertained at their home Thursday night. Parlor games furnished the entertainment for the evening.

Mrs. Fred Wane and daughter Lexie spent the fore part of the week in American Fork.

T. B. Parker has moved from his home in the east part of town into his new modern home in the First ward.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Chipman visited in Pleasant Grove Thursday.

Mrs. James C. Wagstaff entertained at her home Friday night in honor of her brother, Will Ritchie, from Provo.

Dr. H. E. Robinson visited in Provo Tuesday.

Miss McClellan of Salt Lake has been visiting in American Fork this week the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. S. Chipman.

William M. Wilson of Provo was in American Fork Thursday.

L. W. Lund of Pleasant Grove was in American Fork part of this week.

H. J. Kruse, superintendent at the Wyoming State Penitentiary, is spending the week in town with his family.

S. L. Chipman was a visitor at the state capital Friday.

LEHI.

The Commercial Club dance party Friday night was the social event of the season. The City pavilion was filled and besides being a social success the affair netted a good sum for the club's treasury.

Mrs. Heber Webb entertained at a dainty party Thursday evening. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bradshaw of McGrath, Canada, are spending a month visiting relatives in Lehi.

Sugar Austin, general manager of the Sugar City and Idaho Falls sugar factory, is visiting relatives in Lehi.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Crismon of Eureka spent several days this week in Lehi. They are on their way to Nevada.

William Wing and James Schow will arrive home in a few days, the former from a mission in England and the latter from Denmark.

President and Mrs. A. J. Evans spent Sunday at Provo, where they went to see their new grandson, born to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Evans.

John Wing and S. W. Ross were visitors to Zion Tuesday on business matters.

The four wards of Lehi are making arrangements for a concert, to be given in the new tabernacle next week. Professor McClellan and the new pipe organ will be the principal features.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Peterson entertained at their home Friday in honor of Miss Lourene Hyde of Heber, who is visiting friends here.

The marriage of Mose Hart and Inabel Thomas is announced for the last of this month.

The stork brought a son to the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Smith Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William McOmie, after spending a week with relatives here, returned to their home at Nampa, Ida., Monday.

Miss Thiriot and Miss Sims of Salt Lake City, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Dewey.

Charles Harris, after a five years' absence in Alberta, Canada, is shaking hands with friends in Lehi.

Superintendent William Crabb of the Lehi Mercantile company was a Salt Lake visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. W. H. Southworth spent the first half of the week with her parents in Payson.

Cure of Lung Trouble.

"It is now eleven years since I had a narrow escape from consumption," writes C. O. Floyd, a leading business man of Kershaw, S. C. "I had run down in weight to 135 pounds, and coughing was constant, both by day and by night. Finally I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery, and continued this for about six months, when my cough and lung trouble were entirely gone, and I was restored to my normal weight, 170 pounds." Thousands of persons are healed every year. Guaranteed at Z. C. M. I. Drug Store, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.